SWISS WATCHES

COLLECTIONS 2026-2027

Magellan draws its inspiration from the spirit of the great explorations, where time becomes a journey rather than a simple measure.

Based in La Chaux-de-Fonds, at the heart of Swiss watchmaking, the Maison perpetuates a tradition of precision, craftsmanship and innovation.

Each timepiece is conceived as an invitation to explore, balancing technical mastery with refined design, created for those who seek more than timekeeping.

Blending heritage with contemporary vision, Magellan shapes watches with character, depth and identity.

In 2026, the Maison continues to expand its universe, guided by a singular purpose:
The exploration of time.

MAGELLAN

Magellan is based in La Chaux-de-Fonds, in the heart of the Swiss watchmaking region, where craftsmanship, precision and heritage shape every creation.

Founded in 2000, the brand takes its name from Ferdinand Magellan, whose pioneering circumnavigation of the globe remains a lasting symbol of exploration, discovery and the courage to go beyond familiar horizons.

Led by its CEO, Taher Wasfi, who also heads the RIBA WATCH Group, Magellan is expanding internationally with a clear vision of modern Swiss watchmaking.

Today, the brand is establishing itself as a distinctive signature, combining technical expertise, original design and Swiss identity.

Magellan's identity is shaped by a clear set of values.

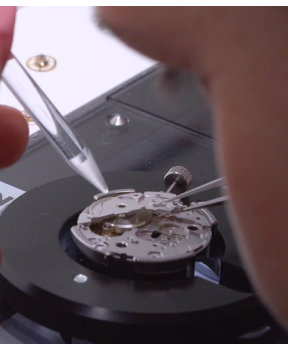

Craftsmanship lies at the heart of the Maison, with each timepiece created with meticulous attention to precision, reliability and refined aesthetics.

The spirit of exploration remains a constant source of inspiration, reflecting curiosity, discovery and the pursuit of new horizons.

Timeless design gives every creation its lasting presence, balancing strong character with harmonious proportions.

Rooted in Swiss watchmaking heritage, Magellan upholds a tradition of quality, authenticity and enduring savoir-faire.
